Regency Park News!

Written by Jimmy Hennigan, Activities Director

Something Spooky This Way Comes...

Double, Double, Toil and Trouble, Jimmy and his comrades have conjured up some wickedly fun events for the upcoming Halloween season! There will be several forms of entertainment and games that will get all of us witches, goblins and ghouls ready for the scariest night of the year. Traveling back to 1600s

Salem, M.A., we will learn about the frightful Witch Trials through a Witch Hunt! Residents will also get a chance to hear some creepy, but fun ghost stories all while eating gooey smores! There will be lots of music to get us in the mood from our favorites, Holly Live, Music by Bob, Karaoke by Christine and Linda's Lyrics. We will also be granted a special appearance by a true illusionist named Vick!

Having performed his magic professionally across the country, Vick (pictured below) will trick and treat us with butterflies, vanishing acts and much more! To top the season off, we will be visited by little ones in costume seeking candy and have a big Halloween party!

Making the Spotlight! Read All About Jimbo!

It is with great honor that I introduce James R. as the Resident of the Month. A man of many accomplishments, "Jimbo" is from Minneapolis, MN, and has 4 siblings, including a twin sister! He is a proud vet of the Vietnam War and also spent time on the U.S.S. Porterfield DD 682 ship while in the Navy. Possessing an artistic flair, Jimbo later had a career in the graphic arts, working as a lithographer, making printing plates. His specialty, however, is making caricatures, such as Mickey Mouse.

A hero in the truest sense, Jimbo has saved many lives. One such incident took place on thin ice! "The man was on the ice way too early in the winter," Jimbo recalls. "I pulled him out when he went under, saving him." Jimbo's most rewarding milestone in life has been being married to his beautiful wife, Betty, for 45 years. Rounding out his family is his son, Aaron, and two grandkids, Evie and Harrison! You're the man, Jimbo!

Yesterday's Joys are Today's Memories!

September was filled with some truly awesome fun! First off, thank you to all who attended the annual family potluck! We had a huge turn out which meant lots of food! Can't wait to do it again! The Showstoppers bedazzled us with elaborate costumes, dance numbers and singing! Jimmy and the residents were able to strut their stuff in the kitchen, baking a scrumptious apple pie from scratch! Jimmy also put on his own show, playing the deliciously Evil Queen, telling her side of the story from the Brothers Grimm's timeless tale, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Enjoy some of the photographs from these good times:

Doing the Job Right!

A young man who is endowed with a superior work ethic, Regency Park sure is lucky to have Kerry B. as the Maintenance Assistant. Possessing the ability to fix just about anything with his bare hands, Kerry has worked at Regency for nearly eight months and in just that short amount of time he has made vast improvements to the building. Originally from Michigan, Kerry loves spending time with his family and close friends.

A dog lover, Kerry has a loyal Pitbull, Nala, named after a character from one of his favorite movies, The Lion King. Kerry is also a master at the grill, making steaks and BBQ chicken for many hungry stomachs whenever given the opportunity. He is also an avid T.V. watcher, his most cherished show being the iconic Seinfeld. Always willing to help not just friends and family, but strangers as well, Kerry is a true gem! Thank you, Kerry, for your impeccable attitude and hard work! Regency loves having you on board!
